

FOR ADDITIONAL THOUGHT

Enjoy Thanksgiving! Growth Groups do not meet this week. The following questions are intended for personal use only. You will not be asked to share your answers to these questions at your Growth Group.

For Married People

Pastor John shared how important it is for husbands and wives to decide to try to meet each other's needs in such a way that they would be fools to ever be interested in anybody else. It's important to learn what it is that your spouse needs and determine that you're going to meet those needs to the very best of your ability even if they are not necessarily your needs or you don't have them in the exact same way. The following questions are provided as a help for you to talk about your expectations. In discussing these, please remember the principles of good communication and love.

- Where have I become slack in my efforts to make you feel important?
- Men, ask your wife to complete this sentence: I think it's romantic when you _____.
- Women, ask your husband to complete this sentence: I feel the most appreciated and respected when you _____.
- What would make our sexual intimacy better for you?

For Singles

- Are there any situations in your life in which you need to make changes in order to maintain your sexual purity?
- If you are dating someone, is your level of physical involvement with that person consistent with what the Bible says?
- What needs to change so that God will be pleased?
